"P2P has become a safe space. Especially with my current situation of having recently been released from Rikers Island, living in a half-way house, and looking for hope. Being able to communicate with men and women that have similar backgrounds, as well as similar goals is comforting. Hearing the stories and goals of my fellow P2P scholars, as well as the stories of the graduates offers me hope. I feel honored that P2P accepts me for who I am."

-Darryl Robertson

SCHOLAR SPOTLIGHT

UnScripted: Authentic Leadership Podcast provides a platform for leaders to unite, develop, and empower other leaders. This episode features Dr. Stanley Andrisse, as he shares his story on how he went from prison to professor.

IN THE MEDIA

Learn more about recent events in prison education and more:

- HBCUs are building a new prison-to-college pipeline
- NewsChannel 5 initiative removes old articles to offer you a 'Fresh Start'
- The P2P Blog and Letters to P2P are now active!
Last month, the P2P Leadership Team traveled to the bright and musical city of New Orleans, Louisiana to attend the 2022 Jobs for the Future (JFF) Horizon Conference. This year’s conference had a focus on connecting impoverished and racially marginalized communities, and those from underrepresented backgrounds, to better jobs, skills, training, and education, enabling their access to an enhanced job market.

Interview with Dr. Andrisse at JFF

Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (EDI) are at the heart of increasing access to opportunity and health. P2P is now offering EDI consulting and training for service.

Building a common language and understanding – even if we don’t all believe the same things – is important for creating the bonds and relationships necessary to build equity. Throughout the course, we examine how to use an equity lens for analysis, framing, communication, and development.

COMING UP

Register for upcoming conferences below!
- Rise Up Conference
- 2022 NCHEP
- 2022 STEM-OPS Annual Convening - STEM-OPS

Are you a P2P alumni? Click here to stay in touch!

Connect with us on social media!